Plumer (Plummer) Genealogy Information.

Dodovah Plumer (17-- -) is the son of Deacon Samuel Plumer who was born in Dover, New Hampshire (abt. 174—1804) and Abigail (Tebbetts) Plumer.

They has several children

Ephraim, born 1766

Ebenezer, born 1869

Samuel born 1772, died at sea

Dodobah, born 17—

Susanna, born 1775, married John Tebbetts of Rochester, 1794

Lydia, born c. 1779, married ---Jones of Farmington and settled in New Hampshire

The majority of the information that has been discovered about the family was found in South Danvers and Peabody directories refer to the family as Plumer.

Hiram Plumer was born in Shapleigh, Maine on 28, February 1815.

He had a son named Dolliver (Dodivah) who was born between 1780-1784; it is possible that he was born in Maine and died between 1830 and 1840.

Dodivah Plumer would marry and have thee children in his first marriage. The children were Temperance Bickford Plumer, were Samuel (1790-); Sallie Plummer who married Ichabod Hayes of Farmington.

Based on circumstantial evidence Dodivah must have then married a woman named Abigail and had more children. By 1840, he was living in Wakefield, New Hampshire. He married Sarah Ann Demeritt (abt. 1815-) of Lee, New Hampshire in Dover, New Hampshire on Nov. 23, 1840.

Dodivah and Sarah Ann's children where:

George, born August 2, 1840 – George would marry Mrs. Sarah C. Beckford of Tuftonborough, New Hampshire on 14, June 1865 by the Rev. Mr. Spaulding.

Samuel Demeritt, born January 15, 1843. Died February 28, 1848.

Joseph Hiram, born September 14, 1845

William, born March 29, 1849

Samuel was born on 29, November 1851, in Danvers and died on 17, September 1864 in Peabody, MA at the age of 13. He died of typhoid, only a death notice was given, there was no obituary.

Abby Sarah was born on 2, September 1855 in Danvers and died on 15, January 1874 at the age of 19.

Sarah Ann Demeritt Plumer died June 27, 1856 of Consumption (Tuberculosis) at the age of 42 and was buried in Monumental Cemetery in South Danvers (Peabody)

Hiram remarried on Feb. 28, 1860 Mary E. (Reed) Wood of Salem. She was born circa 1831, the daughter of Thomas and Mary Reed of Salem. This was a second marriage for her as well.

They had a daughter together Mary Lizzie, born on August 7, 1861. Hiram's occupation in the vital records was listed as currier. His business of dressing and coloring leather seems to have been located behind his home on Lowell Street. He was listed in the South Danvers and Peabody directories under Tanners and Curriers.

The first mention of the family was on March 4, 1848 in the Danvers Courier, a local newspaper. The death notice of Samuel Plumer is here. He died at the age of 4. Normally, the death notice of a child in town merely listed the date of death, the father's name and age of the child, but his goes further with a eulogy for the little boy. My guess is that Fitch Poole, who was an editor of the paper, knew Hiram and his family. Fitch Poole was not only the editor of the paper, but he was the librarian at the first library in the town, the Danvers Mechanic Institute, as well as having his own leather business. He must have known Hiram and Samuel and wrote the eulogy for the boy, which was touching.

George Plumer enlisted in the Army on July 5, 1861, in the 14th Massachusetts Infantry. On Jan. 1, 1862, that designation was changed to the 1st Massachusetts Heavy Artillery. He entered as a Private and by the time he finished his three year service on July 8, 1864, he was a Sergeant. He was first listed in the Peabody directory in 1868, as part of the city government, his appointment as one of the Measurers of Upper Leather. He would later purchase the Fowler Tannery in Danversport, Massachusetts in May of 1880. The tannery according to the Peabody Press was the Oldest establishment in the country.

Nancy J. Plummer the wife of Enoch Plummer died on 20, January 1864 at the age of 29.

Hiram died of Cancer on Jan. 12, 1872. The notice of his death was also quite prominent in the Peabody Press, appearing on January 17, 1872. This was only reserved for those who were well known in the town.

Isannah Plummer the wife of Frank Plummer died on 28, August, 1880 at the age of 36 years, 10 months and 4 days.

On 10, November 1882 Richard Plummer died at the age of 77 years, 10 months and 21 days.

A Fannie E. Plummer married Horace E. Snow on 13, December 1883 by the Rev. W.P. Chipman.

George Plumer died Oct. 2, 1900

Joseph Hiram died at the residence of Mrs. George Plumer at 51 Lowell Street on 18, November 1903 at the age of 58.

The late Cattle Show.

The Agricultural Fair in this town, last week was, considering everything about it, the most attractive and successful the Society has ever held. The day was fine, the proceedings of the Society harmonious, the gathering of people larger than usual, the plowing satisfactory, the hall of fruits and manufactures well and splendidly filled, as were also the cattle pens on the field. Add to all this, the services in the Church were unapproachable. The prayer was fervent and appropriate, and the music excellent. The merits of both the Address and the original Ode, by which it was preceded, need no eulogium from us, as their praise is in the mouths of all.

To close all, and to crown all, the meeting at the Town Hall, after the Dinner, to hear Reports and Addresses, was well attended, and the remarks made were of the most genial and spicy character. The Dinner was got up by our neighbor Simonds, in excellent style.—Among the delicacies presented to his guests was a specimen of pure South Downs mutton, from the farm of Mr. Fay in Lynn.

We give the following details of the Show:

Among the awards to farmers and others of South Danvers and Danvers, were the following:—

Butcher Carts at J. B. McLane's, North Reading.

Those who think they are using pure water, will see a marked difference between it and water that comes through this filter.

Messrs. Geo. Plumer & Co., of this town, have purchased the Fowler tannery at Danversport, one of the oldest established in the country. There are 14 pits. The place will be put in thorough working order and soon be busy under its new owners.

The License certificates, which the Selectmen are giving, were issued from this office. If we may be pardoned for saying
